

Celebration of Healthy Survivors

October 23 – 24, 2010

You are cordially invited to experience the “Voices of NANA” a weekend of Celebration of Healthy Survivors who have become voices in our community. Please join Dr. Ramona Brown and the NANA – Healthy Living Team as we present “survivors living free from shame.”

Saturday, October 23, 2010 - join us in an Awards Recognitions Breakfast honoring Special Victims Advocate for 2010 “Carole O’Shea” Carole is the Victims Service Supervisor of the City of Aurora Police Department.

We will also recognize (4) survivors who are partners and voices for the NANA Intervention Program. These victims will share their stories and how they are not just surviving but they are spiritually thriving and becoming voices in our community!

Sunday, October 24, 2010 – join the NANA Drama Productions program at New Beginnings Cathedral of Worship – NANA Presents: “The Voices of NANA”

This will be a time to see the many voices who will share their story of transformation – this presentation will be dynamic, transparent, funny and even educational as you will see lives that have been touched by the power of God sharing (some for the very first time) their stories. These two events will be held at New Beginnings Cathedral of Worship, 750 N. Chambers Road, Aurora, CO 80011. Free admission, everyone is invited to attend. Call (303) 341-7500 to RSVP for the Awards Recognitions Breakfast before Monday October 18, 2010.
